

SSI – About Us video

[Background music throughout video]

[SSI logo shows on screen]

[Disclaimer shows on screen] Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander viewers are warned that the following video may contain images and footage of deceased persons – viewer discretion is advised.

[Slideshow of photos commences]

VO: Our vision is to achieve a society that values the diversity of its people and actively provides support to ensure meaningful social and economic participation and to assist individuals and families to reach their potential.

Our predominantly bilingual and cross-cultural workforce consists of 800 staff which can speak 98 languages, plus over 350 volunteers.

[SSI CEO on screen]

[Super] Violet Roumeliotis, SSI CEO

SSI CEO VO: Today we're in the top 0.4% of charities in the country providing a range of services, across disability, employment, and child and family programs, to vulnerable Australians irrelevant of visa type.

Our vision and mission and purpose is really around helping people meet their full potential.

[SSI client on screen]

[Super] Haydn Payne, Client

Client 1 VO: Without them, I wouldn't be, on the pathway obtaining my own financial independence and success.

[SSI client on screen]

[Super] Sophie Bejek, Client

Client 2 VO: SSI believed in my skills and they gave me the support and the help that I need.

[SSI staff member on screen]

[Super] Adam Bujairami, Reception and Transit Team Leader, Humanitarian Settlement Program

SSI staff member VO: SSI has opened many doors for me, throughout my journey in Australia, and throughout my career.

[Animated SSI logo appears]

[SSI Member Organisation logos show on screen with following text]

SSI acknowledges the traditional custodians of the land and their enduring sovereignty, and we honour their elders, past, present and emerging. We acknowledge that we have a responsibility to ensure services delivered on this land are provided in partnership with our Aboriginal communities to protect their culture people and lands and to produce positive outcomes for Aboriginal people. We will use our understanding of and commitment to cultural responsiveness as we welcome new cultures to Australia and implement our programs and services.