

Tuesday June 22, 2021 • 10am–3pm

An introduction to Culturally Responsive and Trauma Informed Practice in the Humanitarian Context

Do you work for a service provider in the Hume LGA and want to build your capacity to respond to the large refugee community in the region?

Join us for this FREE training during Refugee Week and explore ways to develop a culturally responsive and trauma informed approach when working with community members from refugee backgrounds.

Where: Online interactive training via Zoom

To register: please email info@ssiiaas.org.au

Presented by SSI and supported by Hume City Council

