

4,200+

refugees were supported in the early stages of their settlement journey

4,737

people with disability and 1,006 family members and carers were supported towards their goals

2,300+

media stories about SSI were each read by an average of 5,000 people

5,500+

people received assistance with their employment goals

300+

volunteers contributed approximately 58,000 hours of time

1,100+

people secured employment with SSI's support, including 700+ people from refugee and asylum seeker backgrounds

327

people were supported as artists or participants in SSI Arts and Culture project

100+

entrepreneurs with a disability or from refugee backgrounds were supported to establish and expand small businesses

3,932

people seeking asylum were supported to live in the community

26,975

clients came through the doors of SSI's four primary offices

9,992

families connected with their community during Community Hubs activities

190

young people engaged with Youth Collective activities

30,000+

individual sessions were held with migrants and refugees through the NSW Settlement Partnership

At least 165

children each day were cared for by SSI's Multicultural Foster Care program

