

Expression of Interest - Lived Experience of Disability

Thank you for your interest in The Rights Path Project (TRPP). If you are a person with disability, speak one of these languages (Vietnamese, Khmer, Punjabi, and Urdu) and are based in Melbourne, Sydney/Newcastle, or Brisbane, please complete this form, and email it to trpp@ssi.org.au

The Rights Path Project (TRPP): Improving quality in NDIS services and supports.

The purpose of this project is to develop resources in Vietnamese, Khmer, Punjabi, and Urdu to:

- 1- Strengthen your understanding of your rights, and the quality of services you should expect to receive.
- 2- Improve your knowledge of how to raise concerns and provide feedback with your NDIS provider.
- 3- Work with NDIS providers to ensure they meet their responsibilities and strengthen their feedback and complaints pathways and promote participants rights by using the resources developed in this project.

Getting involved in the project

You will be working with SSI as a lived experience consultant to help create in language resources to be aware of your rights as a person with disability and share support and service-related feedback.

*As a lived experience consultant, you will be paid for your time and expertise.

Your commitment will look like:

- You will be invited to take part in a 2-hour consultation and 1-2 co-design workshops (2-3 hours each) in person or online.

Or:

- You will be invited to test the developed resources in May 2024 as a member of the Resource Advisory Group.

This project is funded by the Australian Government through the Support for NDIS Providers Grants Program administered by the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission.
