

Find and hire skilled staff from refugee backgrounds

Partner with a refugee employment specialist

People from refugee backgrounds bring extraordinary skills, resilience and determination to Australian workplaces. The right support makes all the difference.

Let us help your organisation embrace workplace diversity while achieving your diversity, social procurement or ESG goals.

We can help you:

- Identify business needs and find suitable candidates
- Access training, incentives and workplace adjustments
- Create safe, inclusive and productive workplaces
- Retain employees through ongoing support and check-ins

Let's work together

Through IEA, SSI offers free support to Australian employers to help recruit and retain staff from refugee backgrounds with a health condition or disability.
